AUSTIN'S COMMUNITIES UNITE AGAINST NEIGHBORHOOD CRIME

WHAT: This week Housing Authority of the City of Austin (HACA) residents will stand together to celebrate National Night Out, an initiative designed to heighten crime prevention awareness, generate participation in local anticrime programs, and strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships.

WHEN: Tuesday (Oct. 3)

WHERE: 5 to 7 p.m.
Meadowbrook Apartments, 1201 W. Live Oak St.
Manchaca II/Manchaca Village/Shadowbend, 6328 Shadow Bend

5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
Coronado Hills, 1438 Coronado Hills Dr.
Bouldin Oaks, 1203 Cumberland Road
Booker T. Washington Terraces, 905 Bedford Ave.

6 to 8 p.m.
North Loop Apartments, 2300 W. North Loop
Lakeside Apartments, 85 Trinity St.

EVENT: HACA will welcome the Austin Police Department, the City of Austin Code Compliance Department, and the Austin Fire Department, along with community partners like Goodwill, Austin Community College, Austin Outreach, CommUnity Care and the Boys and Girls Club.

The event is an opportunity for HACA residents to become aware of safety, get to know local law enforcement, meet community partners and socialize with their neighbors. There will be snacks, games, prizes and T-shirts for residents.

About HACA: Established in 1937, the Housing Authority of the City of Austin (HACA) is a public unit of government separate from the City of Austin. HACA's mission is to cultivate sustainable affordable housing communities and partnerships that inspire self reliance, growth and optimism.
