

Edwina Carrington chairs SHCC, is vice chair for Blueprint Housing Solutions, and is second vice chair for AAHC. Ms. Carrington has more than 28 years of progressively responsible experience in leadership and executive level positions in the public and private sectors, including housing finance agencies, state and local governments, asset management companies, foundations, equity providers, and most recently as the office managing partner of the Austin office of Reznick Group (now CohnReznick), a national accounting and tax advisory firm. Ms. Carrington opened the Austin office in April 2006 as the office managing partner and was responsible for growing the office to profitability in four years of full operations. Ms. Carrington is currently the president of CHK Enterprises, LLC.

Prior to joining Reznick Group, Ms. Carrington served as executive director of the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA) where she oversaw the operations of a state agency administering more than $700 million in federal and state funds with a tax exempt bond portfolio of $1.5 billion. She is credited with turning around the operations of TDHCA and securing an eight-year extension from the Texas Legislature for the agency by creating an atmosphere of accountability, fairness and transparency. She held the position as the chief executive officer of the Texas Housing Finance Corporation, an affordable housing syndicator, and as the director of the Austin Housing Finance Corporation for the City of Austin.

Ms. Carrington's board experience includes the Bank One and JPMorgan Chase Community Advisory Boards, the Fannie Mae Housing Impact Advisory Board, and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas Community Advisory Board. She is the immediate past chair of the Austin Community College Foundation Board of Directors, chair of the Texas State Affordable Housing Foundations Fund, past president of the Texas Affiliation of Affordable Housing Providers, and a member of the Housing and Community Development Council for the Austin Chapter of the Urban Land Institute. She previously served on the boards of the National Council of State Housing Agencies, the National Association of State and Local Equity Funds, serving as president, the National Association of Local Housing Finance Agencies, the City of Austin Arts Commission, and as a founding member of the Texas Affiliation of Affordable Housing Providers. She received a Texas Housing Award and was named the 2017 Commissioner of the Year by the Texas Chapter of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials for her commitment to improving affordable housing in Texas.
